RED CROSS DRIVE IS ON

Summing up the needs of the American Red Cross, which has depleted its disaster fund and must continue to serve the public, Queens Borough President James A. Lundy on March 1st, the opening day of the campaign, will issue a Proclamation calling upon all Queens residents to support the 1957 Red Cross Drive. The Proclamation reads as follows: "GREETING:

WHEREAS, the American National Red Cross is facing one of its worst disaster years and currently is rebuilding homes for 11,000 flood victims in four southern states at a cost of over three million dollars, and

WHEREAS, the money collected in the recent Hungarian Relief drive is earmarked for these unfortunate people and cannot be used for the general Red Cross program, and

WHEREAS, the Central Chapter of Queens and the North Shore Chapter must continue to serve the people of Queens by providing First Aid, Water Safety, Home Nursing courses and maintain its life-saving Blood Program, to mention only a few of their twenty-two community services, and

WHEREAS, the two Chapters have a combined goal of $788,000 toward the city-wide goal of $5, 500,000. NOW, THEREFORE, I, JAMES A. LUNDY, President of the Borough of Queens, City of New York, hereby proclaim the month of March AMERICAN RED CROSS MONTH in the Borough of Queens and call on every resident to participate in the Red Cross campaign and to contribute to his fullest extent so that the great work of the American Red Cross may continue undiminished.

Done at Borough Hall, Kew Gardens, in the City of New York, on this the 1st day of March, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand and nine hundred and fifty-seven."

Queens Palsy Unit Appoints Boro Canvass Leader

The appointment of Mrs. Henry Janowitz of Forest Hills as borough-wide chairman for the 1957 Community Canvass to be conducted by United Cerebral Palsy of Queens on April 8th, was announced today by Herbert H. Weekes, the agency's president and Mrs. Samuel Bellman, chairman of its Women's Division. The theme of the one day drive on April 8th is "Give Help and Hope."

In accepting the chairmanship Mrs. Janowitz said that the theme of the Queens Community Canvass for Cerebral Palsy is particularly appropriate because the Queens community is known for its generosity in responding to the need for help on the part of their handicapped neighbors.

A call for 10,000 volunteers who will make a door-to-door solicitation on the evening of April 8th was issued by the organization. "The response to date," said Mrs. Janowitz, "has been gratifying, but we are still badly in need of volunteer solicitors in many areas of the Borough of Queens." She urged persons who have two hours of time to spare on the evening of April 8th to volunteer their services.

"We have a duty to make certain that children who are afflicted with cerebral palsy are provided with care and treatment, and that teen-agers and adults get adequate vocational training so they become self-reliant," Mrs. Janowitz added. Persons interested in helping with the Community Canvass may volunteer their services by calling REpublic 9-8886 or TWining 6-5383.

Mrs. Janowitz is known to thousands of women all through Queens because of her part leadership and volunteer activity with the Cerebral Palsy organization. She was chairman of its Canvass last year and also served as the Telethon Co-ordinator in 1956. She is active with P. S. 43 P.T.A., Hadassah, Bnai Brith and The Cunningham Women's League.

Youth Consultation Service Elects

Mrs. Walter S. J. Shepherd of Flushing has been elected President of the Queens and Nassau Group Association of the Youth Consultation Service. She succeeds Mrs. Mildred Siering of Sea Cliff who has resigned.

The organization has been in existence 39 years as a Volunteer Casework Agency in behalf of teenagers of Long Island.

Serving with Mrs. Shepherd will be Mrs. Arthur Allen of Uniondale, Vice President; Mrs. John Barker

SCHOOL DAYS

BY TEACHER

NEW METHODS

Many parents are confused today by what is commonly called new methods of teaching. They endeavor to help their children with homework and invariably hear them complain, "That's not the way we learned it in school." This is particularly true of arithmetic.

In the past writers of arithmetic curriculums and text books seemed to assume that every one should have a mathematical mind. It seemed to be the aim of these authors not to make up examples and problems met in every day life by everyone. Instead they composed examples and problems of the type peculiar to the work of specialists. Examples in the fundamental processes, the like of which are done by machine today, were given in bygone days as a matter of course. Problems, then, were long and involved necessitating several operations in the fundamental processes and dealt with everything from building a dog house to high finance. Such arithmetic was considered mental gymnastics and it was thought learning to think clearly in mathematical matters would carry over into learning to think well in other school subjects.

Up-to-date educators take a different view of mathematics. Their aim is to relate mathematics to every day life and to see to it that each pupil grasps the necessary elementary mathematical concepts and the reasons for certain mathematical operations.

Some have called their methods by such names as Living Arithmetic, Every Day Arithmetic and the like. The most recently initiated method is known as Developmental Mathematics.

Developmental mathematics is a method by which a pupil is led through concrete experiences to understand number concepts. He is made to realize our counting system is based on units, tens, hundreds, thousands, etc. By actually handling fractional parts of circles, squares and other forms he gets a concept of fractions and their use in the abstract. Developmental mathematics gives the child a true sense of number values and their meanings in given situations such as would be found in problems. The fundamental processes of adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing, whether they be whole numbers, denominate numbers or fractions, are more readily understood by the pupil who has been brought up on developmental mathematics.

It would be impossible to give all the ramifications of the method of developmental arithmetic in a short column. The January issue of "Holiday" and the 1957 issue of the "Information, Please" Almanac are both said to have a splendid article on the newest and latest teaching methods and their advantages over old methodology. These articles are written so that they may be easily understood by parents. It would be worth any parents while to purchase or borrow these publications for the purpose of getting better acquainted with the aims and objects behind these new teaching methods. Too many people outside the teaching profession are prone to criticise methods used in schools today without having a valid basis for their criticism. The articles in the publications mentioned would no doubt clear up many misconceptions regarding the matter.

A parent wishing to assist his youngster with homework assignments should find out from the teacher or a bright pupil just how the assignments are expected to be worked out. The parent should never insist that the child work out the assignment according to old time methods, for this will only confuse the child.

ANNUAL COMMUNION BREAKFAST OF COURT ST. GREGORY

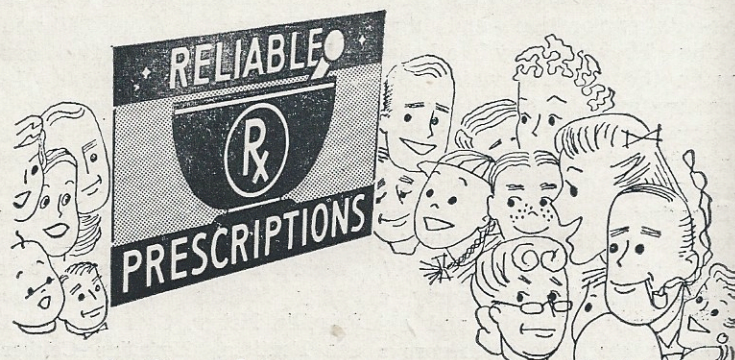

Plans have been made for the Annual Communion Breakfast of Court St. Gregory the Great, No. 1261, Catholic Daughters of America. The members of the Court and their friends will receive Communion at the 8 o'clock mass at St. Gregory's Church on Sunday, March 24. Breakfast will be served at the Stewart Manor Country Club. Mrs. Helen Angelilli, chairman, who is being assisted by Mrs. Adelaide Fracapane, has announced that her Guest Speaker will be Assistant District Attorney Eugene McQuade.

Court St. Gregory the Great has been recorded as being opposed to the film "Baby Doll" and Miss Edna Melledy, Educational Chairman of the Court, has also written a letter of commendation to Miss Arlene Francis for her stand, on a television program, against this film.

The cause of the Beautification of Kateri Tekakwitha, the Lilly of the Mohawk, is being sponsored by Court St. Gregory the Great, in conjunction with all the Courts in New York State. Venerable Kateri Tekakwitha is one of our own American Martyrs and it is hoped that in this, the 300th Anniversary of her birth, she will be canonized.

BIG CITY POLICE LEARN LESSON AT REPUBLIC

GETTING THE FACTS—How defense industries protect highly important secrets is related by A. J. Touhy (left), director of security for Republic Aviation Corporation, to Lt. Raymond Hayes (center), instructor of security operations at New York City Police Academy, and Inspector Joseph L. Coyle (right), in charge of city's narcotics squad. Daily groups of Gotham's high-ranking police officers tour the Long Island plant as an extension of their class work in specialized security training at the police academy. Republic was chosen as the only outside "school room" for the group because of the size—160-man security force—and effectiveness of its security program.

St. Gregory's Confraternity Club Visit Maryknoll and Bear Mountain To Attend Ranger and Knickerbocker Games

Brilliant sunshine greeted the 130 teen-agers of St. Gregory's Confraternity Club as they departed Bellerose at nine o'clock in the morning on Washington's Birthday for a memorable outing to Maryknoll and Bear Mt. Lodge.

The large delegation from Bellerose first visited Maryknoll on the Hudson, home and training ground of the Catholic Foreign Mission Society, which each year dispatches young American priests to the Orient, Africa, and South America. Two Bellerose seminarians greeted the Club on their arrival and the Long Island teen-agers immediately felt right at home with Bob Howlett and Maurice Healy, who are presently in the First Theology class at Maryknoll. A number of their fellow seminarians conducted small groups of teen-agers on an interesting tour of the beautiful seminary grounds and the new chapel dedicated last year by Cardinal Spellman. After visiting the farm, the group briefly visited the Convent across the road where the chartered coaches were waiting for the group to continue their day's outing.

The motorcade journeyed up the scenic roads of the Hudson to popular Bear Mountain Park for a pleasant stay. Here facilities were available for ice-skating and hiking. The highlight of the day came at four in the afternoon when the Club's orchestra, the "Rhythm Masters" under the direction of their leader, Mike McKenna, provided dance music outdoors on the parking lot overlooking the Hudson and all the teen-agers got in a solid hour of dancing. With merry hearts and fond memories the group left Bear Mt. Inn at five and sang popular songs all the way home along the NY Thruway till their arrival back here in Bellerose.

In connection with this tour, Father John King of Maryknoll attended the Feb. 21st meeting of the Confraternity Club and showed a color motion picture of mission life and gave a talk about the life of a Maryknoller.

On March 10th the Club will attend the NY Knickerbocker basketball game in the afternoon at the Garden, and also take in the NY Ranger hockey game at 7 p.m. that same evening — making it a unique doubleheader — lay in sports. Incidentally, the Club's basketball teams are doing very well in the CYO League under the capable direction of Mrs. Cathy Burggraff. In connection with instruction, Mrs. Yvonne Purrows of St. Gregory's parish is conducting an eight-lesson instruction class in ballroom dancing each Thursday evening at 7 p.m. in the Parish hall, and it is proving very popular with the teen-agers.

A gala St. Patrick's Dance is being scheduled for Thursday evening, March 14th, with Mike McKenna's popular orchestra ready to provide long and steady dance music.

A new venture in the Club's program of activities will take place with the first issue of the

The Size of Your Heart

It isn't the size of your house much that matters so much as all
It's the gentle hand and its loving touch, that maketh it great or small.
The friends who come and the hour they go, who out of your house depart
Will judge it not by the style you show it's all in the size of your heart.
It isn't the size of your head so much, it isn't the wealth you found
That will make you happy — it's how you touch the lives that are all around.
For making money is not so hard — to live life well is an art:
How men love you, how men regard, is all in the size of your heart.
—Unknown

Greater New York Girl Scouts
Inaugurate Troop Camping at New Camp

Equipped with skis, sleds and ice skates, 24 members of the Senior Scout Planning Board of the Greater New York Council of Girl Scouts boarded a bus this morning, George Washington's Birthday for a wintry week-end at Camp Merrywood, Pauling, New York when they introduce Troop Camping to the new site.

The camp, purchased in July, 1956 and not yet developed, will offer the girls ample opportunities for primitive camping, camp fires, cook-outs, exploration and map making. They will stay in a house now on the property which contains two separate dormitory and cooking units and will practice the arts and crafts which they have learned during their years of Scouting.

Among the special activities planned by the girls, aged 15-17, are a square dancing party, a friendly snow-ball fight and ski and sled races down the rigorous hills surrounding the camp. Should the weather prove uncooperative, the explorers will doff their parkas and change their program to outdoor games and activities suitable to spring camping.

Camp Merrywood, when completed, will serve 5,000 Scouts each year. At present it will be used as a week-end camp for year-round Scout activities and as a place for Scouts to practice their primitive camping skills this summer.

TROOP 4-119

Mrs. Rose Kleiner, Leader

Recently 25 girls of our troop and 5 adults went to New York in "style" — by chartered bus. We found this medium of transportation very convenient and most enjoyable. We saw the film "Around the World in 80 Days" and the girls found it very interesting.

The girls working on the Cook Badge made cup cakes and cookies for a party celebrating our troop's birthday month.

The group working in the Dabblers Badge made hand puppets which will be given to a hospital with the hope to bring some cheer to sick children.

At the February fly up we welcome 4 new girls to our troop: Mary Lou Del Conte, June Stein, Cheryl Kleiner and Elizabeth Young.

First Class Badges were awarded to: Barbara Crep, Diane Deutch, Jane Mary and Patricia Popp.

"FAMILY WORSHIP"

Available to members and friends of Grace Lutheran Church, is the pamphlet entitled "Family Worship." Starting this week it will be placed in the Tract Rack in the rear of the church.

The purpose in distributing this tract is to have the members make use of it to encourage those that they come in contact with to consider having some form of Family Worship if they are not already doing so.

The pamphlet contains the manner in which Family Worship should be conducted. It relates the many advantages of Family Worship, such as:

1. It draws down the blessing of God upon the domestic circle.
2. Is also of unspeakable advantage in maintaining all the observance of religion.

Supports Moral and Spiritual Values in Schools CTA Letter Says Children Have Right to Know Heritage

"Spiritual ideals based on a belief in God" and without which "morality has no sanction and life no goal" are not only the essential basis of true philosophy and sound education but are an integral part of the American heritage which it is the purpose of our schools to teach and the right of our children to know, the Catholic Teachers Association observes in the recent issue of the CTA Letter. Discussing the recent controversy over the adoption of "The Development of Moral and Spiritual Ideals" as a teachers guide in New York City, the Letter calls the struggle "one small but significant skirmish in the tremendous worldwide battle that is in progress between secularism and religion — between those who believe that man was created by God to enjoy eternal happiness in a future state and those who believe that the visible, physical world around us is the only reality. The influential American philosopher of education, John Dewey aptly epitomized the secularist position when he admitted flatly "We agree that we (the secularists) are uncertain as to where we are going, and where we want to go, and why we are doing what we do," says the Letter in noting that such thinkers would oppose to the last any concession to the moral and spiritual basis which underlies our present civilization. But, the publication continues, the adoption of the bulletin is a "step in the right direction" and the Board of Education sets forth the responsibility of the public schools to, quoting from the bulletin, "nurture the moral and spiritual fiber of our children, stimulating thereby that love of God and country which springs from a wholesome home environment." The Letter expressed the hope that teachers will utilize the wealth of material provided by the facts of American history to carry out the responsibility to develop a true appreciation of the meaning of moral and spiritual ideals in the children of the schools of New York.

In the more than 700 homes of Grace Church material is sent each 3 months making it possible for those homes to have "Family Worship." The booklet "Portals of Prayers," published by Concordia Publishing House, St. Louis, Mo. is mailed to the homes. This booklet contains a devotion for every day in the week for the three month period. Also the booklet contains, prayers to be used with the devotion.

Members of Grace Church are being asked to leave the names and addresses of any individual who would appreciate receiving a copy of the pamphlet "Family Worship", which will be mailed to them.

Interested individuals can secure a copy of this pamphlet by calling Miss Mildred Wichels, parish worker during the day" at the church office HO 4-4753.

The Rev. Louis S. Wagner, pastor of Grace Church stated that "We have the special assurance that, where two or three are gathered in Christ's name. He will be with them."

Bellerose Commonwealth Civic Association

Rolph M. Hayden, Pres.

A regular meeting of your Civic Association was held the evening of February 19, 1957 at P.S. 133. Thirteen hundred notices were distributed in our area and we had an attendance at this meeting of 62 people. Those who did come are to be congratulated on their civic pride. Those who did not attend have only themselves to blame if items of importance to them are not handled in the manner in which they would desire. The very important problems of:

1. Water Flouridation
2. Racial Integration in our Schools
3. Real Estate Tax Assessment
4. Transit Problems (buses)
5. Assessable Improvements and assessments Thereon and other items were discussed at this meeting. Time and space do not permit giving the full details of these items at this time. Anyone interested in these vital problems should contact any officer or director of the association for further information — and attend all future meetings. Your Civic Association working in cooperation with other civic associations through the Eastern Queens Council is actively protecting your interests at all times as to civic matters. Your suggestions and constructive criticisms are welcome at all times. If you are not yet a member send your dues ($1.00 per year) to the financial secretary Melvin Ripley 84-48 251st Street. A notice will be placed in your door as to when the next regular meeting will be held. For your own protection, be sure to attend!
